

A World War I adventure with Britain's top football team!

THE BRAMPTON KEYS

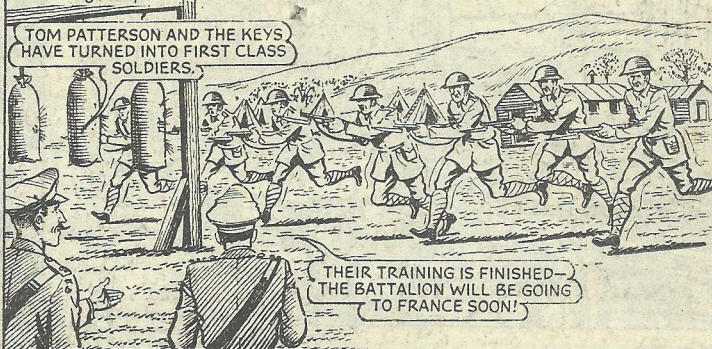

At the outbreak of the First World War, every man in the Brampton Keys team volunteered for the army. In those days, special Sportsmen's Battalions were formed and it was one of these battalions that the Keys joined. Their farewell game was played before a huge crowd...

A huge crowd gathered the next day to give the Keys a rousing send-off.

At training camp...

A few weeks later, the Keys were in action in the front line.

As always, the "Sportsmen" fought like tigers, but this time the odds were too great even for them to overcome.

Later, at the prisoner-of-war camp...

