

Canada's champion axeman becomes a champion log-birler.

BROADAXE

HELLO, WHAT HAPPENED TO YOU TWO GUYS?

WE TANGLED WITH BULL JORGEN. HE'S BOSS OF THE JEHLUM CAMP AND HE RUNS THE WHOLE RIVER.

JIM JANNOCK, known as "Broadaxe" because of the wide head of his famous axe, was Canada's champion axeman. One day, on a rough trail, he met two loggers in a sorry state.

At the Jehlum camp.

BULL JORGEN WINS AGAIN. NO-ONE CAN BEAT HIM AT LOG BIRLING.

I'LL CHALLENGE YOU, JORGEN! JANNOCK'S THE NAME.

LOOK OUT, JORGEN! I'M GOING TO MAKE MY MOVE—

—NOW! HOW D'YOU LIKE IT?

JANNOCK'S BEATEN BULL JORGEN!

SURE THING, MR BRANNIGAN.

I'M JEFF BRANNIGAN OF THE J.B. CAMP. I'VE HEARD ABOUT YOU, BROADAXE. HOW ABOUT BEING MY CAMP BOSS FOR THE RIVER DRIVE?

Several weeks later, the JB river drive started.

THAT'S THE FIRST OF THE LOGS AWAY.

KEEP 'EM GOIN', LADS, WE'VE GOT A LONG WAY TO GO.
