

It's Sam Grant's grenades against a German bomb-throwing gun!

Grant's Grenades

PRIVATE SAM GRANT and his pal, Nipper Burns, were making grenades in a front-line trench in France during World War I. Sam had developed a grenade made out of jam tins for the new trench warfare.

