

Bradley fights a desperate tank duel to try to save an American general's life!

19

KILL OR DIE!

Corporal Jim Bradley was captured on the Normandy battlefield in 1944 and injected with a slow-acting poison by Nazi scientists. They promised him the antidote if he killed some top Allied commanders but Bradley managed to get some antidote himself, only to discover it was fatal unless taken under medical supervision.

Bradley had tracked down three Americans similarly poisoned, but he was too late to stop them attacking General Patton's H.Q. in their tank.

THEY'VE STARTED THEIR ATTACK! NOW
ALL I CAN DO IS TRY TO FIGHT THEM!

BUT WHAT GOOD AM I
AS A TANK GUNNER?

NOT EXACTLY A CRACK SHOT!

THEY'RE TURNING ON ME NOW BEFORE
CARRYING ON THEIR ATTACK!

AAH!

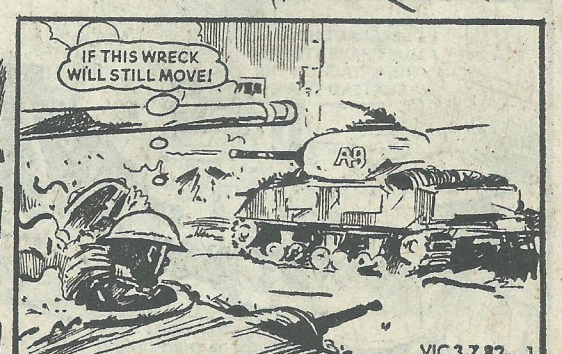

THEY HIT! I MISS!
I HAVEN'T A HOPE!

I'M A BETTER DRIVER
THAN A GUNNER!

IF THIS WRECK
WILL STILL MOVE!

VIC 3.7.82-1