

Meanwhile in another compartment, Charteris is saying...

An aluminium cricket bat Calderbank!!
Ridiculous.

That's exactly what I said. Any old fiery fast bowler would leave dents the size of your fist, in the bat with the ball.

You'd be at the crease, bowler, bowls...

Ooof.
WHACK!

...you swing the bat back ready to hit the ball and...

Money...

SLAM!
We've got our tickets thanks.

...Or a beating.
Huh.

Right. Let's give 'em a firecracker.

Cover your ears.

The nerve of some people, butting into our important discussion.

Even stopping the ball dead will damage the bat.
