I've decided that you can retain your rank of Sergeant.
Sir! I won't let you down.

I need help! It's the Sergeant he's having another of his attacks!
Come on Gruffy.

I'll take this trolley, it may come in handy.

Stop fussing! I could have walked back here under my own steam.
Greene doesn't look well. Looks like his heart.

The loco's on its way back. We'll have you in hospital in no time.

Terret…have you thought of trying for your sergeant's stripes?
That's it for me. Time to retire. I'll not get a second warning!

Me? You're joking Sarge! I'm not Sergeant material. I'm always late… and…

Rubbish Terret. You would make an excellent Sergeant. Well respected by your colleagues and the public.
And being a Sergeant will cure you of your "punctuality issues." Think about it at least lad.
